

Application Process

Returning Vendors

1. Please note our NEW HOURS are 9:00am-9:00pm on Saturday July 1st, 2017.
2. Participating in previous festivals does not guarantee acceptance in future festivals.
3. The Honor America Day Festival coordinators will make every effort to honor specific booth requests. However, we cannot guarantee booth locations and reserve all rights to booth placement.

New Vendors

1. New applications will be reviewed as they are received.
2. All new applications must be completed fully and accompanied by the following: Completed Exhibitor Application, payment for booth space, and we request a photo of the art and/or craft and/or product, All photos become property of the Honor America Day Festival and will not be returned. All photos may be used for festival promotion purposes.
3. Committee decisions are based on photographs and information provided on the 2017 application. Send the best photos you have available as they are the most important factor in the committee's deliberation.
4. Send no additional information other than photographs as requested and the application.
5. E-mail submissions are acceptable and should be sent to david@andarkochamber.org.

For All Applicants

1. Selection is based on quality and skill in workmanship, original and creative ideas as well as attractiveness. The committee also strives to create a diverse festival of unique crafts and artist types.
2. ALL DECISIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ARE FINAL.
3. A signed application constitutes a contract to follow all rules and regulations. It is a contract to participate, personally, if accepted.
4. Any exhibitor not abiding by these rules set by the Honor America Day Festival Coordinators will forfeit their privilege to participate in the current and future shows.
